FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY AT 31 OCT 2025

Once again, the market's focus is squarely on artificial intelligence (AI) with impressive advancements in model capability and strong results from AI-related companies in the June 2025 quarter (2Q25). Additionally, we have seen several substantial equity investments and infrastructure deals within the AI ecosystem being announced, further boosting sentiment and share prices. At the same time, some market participants are questioning whether the substantial AI-related capex, estimated at US$400bn in 2025 across the sector, will generate enough revenue (and eventually earnings) to justify the sums being deployed. Software is emerging as one of the sectors where investors are increasingly becoming cautious. Generative AI is making it easier for small teams and individuals to develop software. That potentially lower barrier to entry is leading to pressure on valuations for software stocks. All of the above makes for an environment of sizeable divergence between subsectors of the technology market. The fund's equity content ended 3Q25 at 87.6%, up slightly from 86.0% at the end of June 2025 (2Q25). The balance of 12.4% is held mainly in cash.

FEE DETAILS

	Class A
Initial Fees (BCI) (Incl. VAT)	0%
Annual Management Fee (Incl. VAT)
Class A	1.27%
Performance Fee	None
TER and Transaction Cost (Incl. VAT)
Basic	Jun 25: 1.25% (PY): 1.24%
Portfolio Transaction Cost	Jun 25: 0.01% (PY): 0.00%
Total Investment Charge	Jun 25: 1.26% (PY): 1.24%

A higher TER ratio does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's. Transaction Costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and impacts Fund returns. The TIC should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors including market returns, the type of Fund, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER. The TER and Transaction cost calculations are based upon the portfolio's direct costs for the financial year ended 31 December 2024, whilst the underlying portfolios ratio and cost calculations are based upon their most recent published figures, being 30 June 2025.
